POWERonHEELS®
Mujeres passing on the POWER!

These extraordinary two days will be filled with the collective wisdom of some of the most powerful Latinas in Houston. Throughout the events, we will honor Latinas that have blazed trails for us, share and discuss key issues, turn ideas into action, and celebrate Latinas who are making differences in their communities

Location: Houston Community College – Southeast Campus
6815 Rustic Ave.
Houston, TX 77087

Day 1 March 2nd, 2018
Time: 6:00pm – 8:00pm
Audience
Size: 250

Presenting: American Masters "The Women's List"

During this documentary you will meet 15 women representing the ultimate in Girl POWER and who define contemporary American culture in Timothy Greenfield-Sanders's "The Women's List" film features Madeleine Albright, Margaret Cho, Edie Falco, Betsey Johnson, Alicia Keys, Nancy Pelosi, Rosie Perez, Wendy Williams and more. All trailblazers in their fields, these women share their experiences struggling against discrimination and overcoming challenges to make their voices heard.

Keynote presentation: "Latinas – Leading in the Spotlight"

Special Guest Speaker: Sandra Guzman

This award winning journalist and author conducted the interviews from behind the camera of "The Women's List". Sandra will lead a POWERFUL discussion afterwards and shares her insights on the POWER of OUR LEADERSHIP today. Sandra is the former Editor-in-Chief Latina magazine, served as the Associate Editor at the New York Post, and penned "The New Latina Bible". She has written for such publications and websites including CNN, UNIVISION, NBCLATINO.com and many others.

Yolanda Black Navarro Community Legacy Award

Yolanda Black Navarro was a community leader who modeled for us the ultimate expression of service and commitment to our community, including civic engagement, corporate responsibility, entrepreneurship, and non-profit organizations. This community and city icon through her civic and political leadership, left her edible mark on our hearts and community.

Power On Heels Network will honor and recognize the accomplishments of Yolanda Black Navarro, whose mission to empower Houston's Hispanic community is one of her truest legacies by awarding an individual who currently continues on the legacy of this beloved champion.

Supporting Our Community

Giving back is part of what we do! We are super PROUD of our efforts in 2016 and we look forward to doing it again! During this event, a portion of every registration for Power On Heels Convos will be donated to Shoes for Kids, a 501-C3 nonprofit that provides brand new shoes to economically disadvantaged children throughout Houston. Plus, there will additional donations opportunities available during the event.
